WINE AND CULTURE

Departure from the Vignoble La Mission, your second stop will be at the Vignoble de La Bauge and you continue to Vignoble Les Diurnes in Cowansville.

Take advantage of a horse drawn tour to visit our vineyard and exotic animals: wild boards, lamas, yaks, emus, long horns, etc.

Harvest: September 15 to October 15

Vignoble la Mission
1044, boul. Pierre-Laporte
(route 241) Brigham
450-263-1524
www.vignoble-lamission.com

Vignoble de La Bauge
155, des Érables, Brigham
450-266-2149
www.labauge.com

Located at the top of a hillside, this winery boasts a panoramic view of the region. A guided tour of the grounds and a visit of the winery are offered by the winemaker/owner. Picnic tables are available.

Harvest: mid-September to the end of October and in December for the ice wine

Vignoble Les Diurnes
205, montée Lebeau
Cowansville
450-263-1526

Bordered by the Appalachian mountains, this winery's geographical setting and gravelled hills enable full advantage of the warm sun for grape growing.

Harvest: end of September to the beginning of October